FAQs:

Q: Are forecast reports sold separately?

A: No, reports or data are not sold separately. All the HousingEconomics reports will be accessible for a year once you subscribe on line.

Q: When I will have access to the reports and data?

A: You will have immediate access once you complete the subscription process.

Q: Can a subscription be shared with other department members or coworkers?

A: NAHB discourages subscribers from sharing their subscription to HousingEconomics. Also our system allows only one user at a time per user ID. If several of your company's staff members need access to economic data, the HousingEconomics Multiple-License is the answer. With this license, more than one person can access HousingEconomics simultaneously. In addition, YOU SAVE UP TO 60% of the retail price. The multiple-license gives you the flexibility to add or remove staff subscribers as your business needs change.
